MEET THE PRESIDENT

Members of Conference Addressed by President Roosevelt.

SPEAKS FOR NO ONE BUT THE PUBLIC.

First Session Lasts But Fifteen Minutes When Adjourument Is Takeu to Consider Matters at Issue.

Washington, Oct. 3.-The second step in the president's efforts to effect a settlement between the anthracite coal magnates and the mlners has been taken. A few minutes after the hour fixed for the conference, every person who had been invited to par- House conference. Mr. Mitcheil deticipate with the exception of Prest- clined to discuss the situation from dent Oliphant of the Delaware and any point of view in advance of the Huden, who sent a personal representative, David Wilcox, vice president and general counsel of the road, pected to talk. The other members and President Cassatt of the Pennsyl. of the Mitchell party were President vania road, were present in the second story front room of the present executive mansion, where the president since his return from Indlanapolis has transacted such necessary pubiic business as could not be postponed. The president during the conference was seated in a large invalid mands were not granted, the demands chalr, his left leg extended at full length, resting upon a cushion, the the Shamokin convention. president greeted most cordially each of the guests, when they appeared and when ail were assembled he stated to them in a brief preliminary way his object in calling them together. The president fully realizing the importance of the communication that he general supposition was that they was to make, had prepared a carefully worded paper setting forth in detail his position on the pending controv-

The President's Speech.

At the opening of the conference President Roosevelt said:

"I wish to cali your attention to the fact that there are three parties affected by the situation in the anthracite trade—the operators, the miners and the general public. I speak for nelther the operators, nor the miners, but for the general public. The questions at issue which led to the situaconcerned-tho operators and the the raliway presidents. miners; but the situation itself vitaily affects the public. As long as there seemed to be a reasonable hope that these matters could he adjusted between the parties, it did not seem proper to me to intervene in any way. I disclaim any right or duty to intervene in this way upon legal grounds or any upon any official relation that I bear to the situation, but the urgency and the terrible nature of the catastrophe impending over a large portion of our people in the shape of a winter fuei famine impels me, after much anxious thought to believe that my duty requires me to use whatever Influence I personally can to bring to an end a situation which has become iiterally intolerable. I wish to emphasize the character of the situation and to say that its gravity is such that I am constrained urgently to insist that each one of you realize the heavy burden of responsibility upon hlm. We are upon the threshold of winter with an already existing the refusal of the company to withcoal famine, the future terrors of which we can hardly yet appreciate. The evil possibliities made so farreaching, so appalling that it seems to me that you are not only justifled in sinking, but required to sluk for the time being any tenacity as to your respective ciaims in the matter at issue between you. In my judgment the situation imperatively requires that you meet upon the common plane of the necessities of the public. With all the earnestness there is in me I ask that there be an Immediate resumption of operations in the coal mines in some such way as will, without a day's unnecessary delay meet the crying needs of the people. I do ate the villagers and cause neutrals to not invite a discussion of your respective claims and positions. I appeal to your patriotism, to the spirit that sinks personal considerations and tcheff for a general revolt are handimakes individual sacrifices for the capped by the hostility of the auhergeneral good."

When the president concluded the reading of bis statement, he said he did not expect that either party would garian sources upwards of 500 Bulgarbe ready to submit propositions at this time, but be asked them to take into consideration what be had said and to return at 3 o'clock. He said be boped that some proposition might be presented at that tmie which would furnish the basis of an adjustment.

Root Optimistic. Secretary Root bad nearly an bour's private conference with the president. The secretary was in an optimistic mood when he left the White House. He said he could not communicate anything further than what had been given to the press, but he did not hesitate to express bis individual opinion bright for some satisfactory oucome of the negotiations instituted. He thought that the strong point of the situation was that for first time the conflicting elements had been brought fairly face to face-in the bull ring as he expressed it—and they were now in a position where it was incumbent upon them to do something. In other words, the ice had been broken as between the parties and he was hopeful that when they came together again, the way would be paved for some sort of a compromise.

Mr. Mitchell and his party breakfasted and immediately afterward. Mr. Mitchell was joined by President Gompers of the Federation of Labor. They left the hotel together and Mr. Mitcheli was not seen again until he made his appearance at the White. meeting, merely saying that under the circumstances he could not be ex-Nichols, of District Miners' unlon No. 1; President Thomas Duffy, of District union No. 7, and President J. Fahey, of District union No. 9. They were in cheerful moods and all contended that the miners were prepared to bold out indefinitely if their destill being as originally outlined by

When the conference of the coal strike situation had been in progress but 15 minutes, the railroad representatives left the conference room and were closeted in a room on the lower floor of the White House. The either had received a proposition and had retired to consider it or had retired to prepare one of their own.

Soon after retiring to their room tbe railroad representatives left the White House. They refused to say anything except that they were comlng back again for a further conference. President Baer was asked by a number of newspaper men where he could be seen and he responded: "Gentlemen, we are trying to get just where we can confer and where you cannot see us."

President Mitchell and his party tion affect immediately the parties left the White House shortly after

The representatives of the railroads were driven from the White House to their special train in which they remained at the Baltimore and Ohio station until it was time to leave for the second conference. Each had prepared a report which he presented to the president when the conference reassembled.

MORE STRIKERS OUT.

Sixteen Handred Southern Miners Suspend Work at Offleers' Cull.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 3.-Presldent Edward Fiynn of the United Mine Workers of America, district of Alabama, has stated that he had issued orders for all the miners of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Rallway company at the Blue Creek and Blocton mines to suspend work on Monday next. About 1,600 men will be involved, which added to those already out in the Pratt mines dlvlsion, will make the total number of strikers over 4,000. The strike grows out of hold assessments made by the miners' union for the anthracite strlkers from the wages of those miners who object to paying it. President Fiynn says all miners who refuse to pay the assessment will be expelled. Officials of the miners' union are now making a canvass among the miners of the Sioss-Sheffield company.

Revolt in Macedonia Constantinople, Oct. 3.—The insurrectionary movement in Macedonia does not appear to have spread to any serious extent, although it is feared in some quarters that the Turkish measures for its suppression may exasperjoin the revolutionists. MASSACHUSETTS STATE CONVENTION.

Houoroble John I. Bales Is Nominated For Governor-Platform Endorses Roosevelt and Asks Reclproclty For Cuba.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—The Republican eague has closed its session in this city. The last session was called to order by President Hamilton and recelved the reports of committees. The committee on resolutions had its report draughted, but secured a delay in its presentation. It was then resolved to proceed with the election of officers. J. Hampton Moore of Philadelphia, had no opposition for the nomination for president. He was placed in nomination by Karl Kuehule of lowa. He was elected by acclama-

The League platform as produced by the resolutions committee was then presented to the delegates, who adopted it without discussion. The platform follows:

"The National Republican League, in its thirteen convention assembled, congratulates the party of Abraham Lincoln and our American citizenship of all partles, upon the prosperity that was restored to the whole people under the wise and patrlotic policies that signa: lzed the administration of William McKinley in war and in peace, and that have been continued with energy and fearlessness by the soldier statesman. Theodore Roosevelt. We give unqualified commendation to his administration. We believe in his honesty of purpose, admire him for his courage, and love him for his unswerving Republicanism. The convention records its tribute of grief over the tragic death of the beloved American, William McKiniey, and mourn illm as the tireless champion of American prosperity and the dauntless defender of national

The platform declares for the admission to the Union of the territories of New Mexleo, Oklahoma and Arlzona, and the extension of a territorial form of government to Indian Territory, and approves the action of the administration in redeeming every pledge growing out of the Spanish war. It declares for protection to American labor, and condemns every combination of capital whose purpose is self-agrandlzement at the expense of the working man, the general publle, the nation, or any state or local government, or to increase the cost of the necessities of life, or, in any way to assall the moral, physical or polltical welfare of the people." It protests against child labor, and urges a speedy adjustment of the coal

The meeting was concluded with an address by Senator Beverldge of In-

Other officers were elected as follows: Sccretary, E. J. Weeks, lowa; treasurer, Sid H. Redding, Arkansas; vice president, J. J. Sheridan, Illinois. The only contests were over the offices of treasurer and vice president, Byron E. Sheffield of Kansas having been a candidate for the former, and L. W. Mott of New York for the latter. An executive committee to serve during the new administration was appointed.

Massachusetts Republicans.

Boston, Oct. 3.-With every plan matured for quickly and harmoniously completing their plaform, the delegates to the Republican state convention assembled in the Boston theater and nominated a ticket to be voted for in November, Ex-Secretary of the Navy John D. Long was chosen as permanont chairman. In assuming the chairmanship he delivered a scholarly address upon the issues.

The platform adopted indorses President Roosevelt, demands reciprocity with Cuba; favors protection, says combinations of capital must not be prejudicial to country's best interests. The coal strike is deplored and a soiution hoped for.

The following ticket was nominated hy acclamation: Governor, John L. Baies, present lieutenant governor; lieutenant governor, Curtis Guiid, Jr., of Boston; secretary of common-Norwalk, O., Oct. 3.—A car running wealth, William M. St. Louis Secures Neccessary Funds For the Exposition.

St. Louis, Oct. 3.-A banquet was tendered by the Business Men's league at the Mercantile club to the governor's and commissioners who attended the ceremonles of alloting sites for state buildings at the Louislana purchase exposition. Mr. i. G. Baker of St. Louis has received a request from Governor Toole of Montana to accept the site alloted to that state. The site will probably be added in a few days, together with the sites for Utah, West Virginla and New Hampshire. A letter has been received from Governor Hunt of Puerto Rico, who is now in New York city, that he was unable to attend the allotment ceremonles this week and he asks that the site be reserved for that divislon.

The government's $5,000,000 will soon become avallable to the expositlon company. The city of St. Louis has deposited all of its $5,000,000 and subscribers to the $5,000,000 exposition stock are paying their obligations so rapidly that ail of the $15,000,000 will soon be in the treasury of the company.

House Adjourns.

Columbus, O., Oct. 3.—The code has now been read entirely through, section by section, in the house of representatives, with the exception of the repealing clauses and these have been referred to a special committee. The house has adjourned to Monday evening at which time the report of the committee on repeals will be heard. It is expected that the house will reach a vote on the blll by Tuesday morning. The conference committee will also be named at that time and the present plan is for the house to adjourn for the remainder of the week so that the conference committee can perform its labors without the disturbances which attended the meetings of the code committee. At the morning session, the civil service provisions were all approved with the exception of several details which met with no opposition. Representative York offered his bill in the shape of an amendment but Mr. Guerln raised the point of order that the matter contained in the bill had already been gone over and that the amendment could not therefore be received. The speaker sustained this point of order and the York bill was shelved.

Pioneer Westerner Dead.

Denver, Oct. 3.—General Beis M. Hughes, one of the most noted characters in the early history of the west, is dead at his home in this city of pneumonla, after an lliness of several weeks. Mr. Hughes was president in the carry sixtles of the Overland Stage and express company, which operated between the Misouri river and the Pacific coast. He also was the first president of the Denver and Pacific rallroad and was promluent in other raliroad development. Highes was born in Kentucky in 1816 and educated for the law. This pursult he followed with success at periods during his ilfe until 1893, when he retired. He began his legal career at St. Joseph, Mo., and served that state in the legislature. Mr. Hughes was distinguished as a soldiers, having served through the Biack Hawk wnr with honor.

Troops Protect Non-Unionists. Mount Carmei, Pa., Oct. 3.-While the Fourth regiment soldiers' train on the Northern Central railroad was standing in the local yard, a crowd of unknown men threw missiles through numerous wludows of the cars. No one was lnjured because all of the troops were encamped. Attracted by the crash of glass, several policemen ran to the scene whereupon the mob fled. Colonel O'Neil sent a detall of men in pursuit but all escaped. The train pays morning and evening visits to collieries between here and Shamokin to guard against strikers assaulting non-unionists on their way to and from work.

Want Police Protection.

New Orleans, Oct. 3.—President Pearson of the rallway company has sent a letter to Mayor Capdevielie announcing that the company was preparing to operate its cars. Mr. Pear son sald the company desired to be assured that there would be ample police protection. No Cars Have Been Ruu But Hope For Amleable Settlement 1s Not Abandoned-People Must Walk.

New Orleans, Oct. 3.—The striking street car men who left their posts last Sunday morning in an attempt to secure higher wages and a shorter day, apparently are masters of the sitnation, as no attempt had been made to start cars on any of the llnes. Considerable destruction of property of the New Orleans Rallway company was reported as having occurred during the night. It is probably the result of the statement of the company that it would attempt to run its cars. Feed wires were cut, poles chopped and other means resorted to to make it difficult for the company to operate its service.

The papers contain advertisements for 1,000 motormen and conductors. They state that only residents of New Orieans need apply. It is not eonsidered probable that there will be numerous responses to these advertisements. Telegrams from other clties said the company was seeking to obtain outside jabor, but the company is not willing to admit this, and refers to its advertisements to show that it desires only home labor. The strikers, however, are suspicious and there were pickets at all the rallway stations in anticipation of the arrival of foreign laborers. The weather continues fine and the discomfort of the public in getting from point to point is somewhat lessened. Efforts are being made by dislnterested persons to bring the representatives of the contending factions together. Hope has not been abandoned of an amleable settlement. Until the company attempts to operate cars other than those carrying the mail there Is unlikely to be serious disturbance of

Result Anxlously Awaited. New York, Oct. ran of Wilkesbarre, Pa., who has taken part in the settlement of several mlners' strikes, says regarding the prospects of the coal conference at Washington with President Roosevelt: "America and Europe are on tiptoes awaiting the outcome of this peace counsel, which is of greater natlonai importance than any domestic conference since the close of the civil war. The embittered struggle must be ended at this meeting, not on terms of dishonorabic and ignobie capitulation by either side, but on the terms of honorable compromise and re-establishment of friendly relations. To adjourn the convention and allow the disputants to leave the executive mansion as they entered it would be nothing short of a national calamity. The dispute bluges no longer upon the question as to whether the operators are going to win and the miners going to lose or vice versa, but whether coal is going to be supplied to a clamorling public."

On a Technicality.

St. Louis, Oct. 3.—When the trial of Robert M. Snyder, banker and promoter, charged with bribery in connection with the Central Traction blli, was resumed in Judge Ryan's court, Clrcuit Attorney Folk began the task of proving that the defendant's case did not come under the statute of limitatlon and therefore he was not exempt from prosecution. The period of limitation for bribery in this state is three years. It is the state's contention that Snyder has been a resident of New York for the greater part of the time since the Central Traction bill was passed, in 1898, and cannot therefore receive the benefits of the statute of llmitations. The defense will undertake to show that he lives and has lived in Kansas Clty. The question will turn on the meaning of the words "Inhabitant" and "resident" contained in the statute.

To Settie Friar Question.

Wasiilngton, Oct. 3.—Three years is the period of time now fixed in the minds of the officials of the war department as requisite for a complete settlement of the Philippine friars iands question, if it is to be adjusted on the present basis. This appears to be an extraordinary waste of time, quake was felt at Terni, about 40 but it is accounted for by the statement that so many and complicated are the land titles to be examined that ail the resources of the Philippine civdamaged, but there was no loss of il government cannot satisfactorily adjust them in a less time.

THE Staats-Zietung, the most influential German paper in the United States, which has not supported a Democratic ticket since 1896, announces that it will support the Democratic ticket of New York this year.

GOVERNOR CUMMINS, of Iowa, is one of the Republicans engaged in pushing the fight for tariff revision. Hear him:

"What I have tried at various times to say is this: That a monopoly, whether established by a trust partnership or individual, is not entitled to the benefit of tariff duties, and that, if this were the law, it would have some effect in preventing the creation of monopolies.

"It is not necessary to the business of the country that monopolies shall exist, and ambitions men should be informed that they cannot have both monopolies and the tariff. You can be sure they will choose the course most profitable to REPUBLICAN dissensions on the tariff issue go to prove the vitality of tariff revision as the dominant issue of the campaign now under way. This is due to the fact that the people have now come to a very clear realization of certain truths. They know that the trust evil has reached proportions that render imperative a restriction of the malign power of the trusts. They know that the monopolies enjoyed by the trusts were created by the Dingley tariff and are maintained by that tariff. They know that the way to remedy the trust evil is to revise the tariff of which the evil was born. The Republican party cannot successfully oppose the people on this issue. The split in the party is the presage of defeat at the polls in the November elections.

LOW TARIFF AND GOOD TIMES. The United States and Canada are two great countries with a border line 3,000 miles long. Naturally it might be sup- fields of operation in other lines. A posed that an economic system that handful of brokers, a hand to mouth other. Such, however, does not appear ers around the rooms during the sales, to be the case, if the statesmen in charge furnishing something for the trust to are to be believed.

The Republicans who are "it" in the management of our trust ridden government are perfectly certain that the prosperity which they talk so much about (to make sure that we have it) is due to our high protection policy, inaugurated five years ago. Canada lowered her tariff duties about the time we raised ours and the statesmen there are now crediting their prosperity to these lower duties. A recent issue of the Toronto Globe

If under any scale of duties the industries of a country are prospering, higher duties cannot be justified even on grounds of expediency. The country has now been for five years under a tariff very considerably lower than that which prevailed in the previous seventeen years, a period amply sufficient to test the efficacy of high protection. The low tariff has exceeded that enjoyed under the high tariff. The result is that the extreme protectionists are forced and sumple. The United States will not buy our goods as freely as we buy theirs. Therefore we must cut down our American imports until something like equality is established. Germany has made some foolish discriminations goods. against Canadian wheat; we must, therefore, aim to strike a blow at Germany. In this way the word protection loses its meaning. What is sought is not the protection of our own industries, but the injury of somebody else's.

"Let well enough alone and don't touch the high tariff," say our Republican statesmen. "Let well enough alone and don't touch the low tarlff," say the Canadian statesmen. Is it possible that five years of good crops in both these countries and poor crops in Europe have freight on the tobacco stems, which are anything to do with our prosperity? Is it certain that we are prosperous at all, outside of the protected trusts and the farming sections of the West? Will not the trusts soon have gobbled up all of the surplus prosperity even of these Western farmers?

THE TOBACCO TRUST

A Cincinnati Paper Tells of Its Work in That Market.

The "Breaks" Are Now Only a Plaything in the Hands of the Gigantic Combine.

[Cinclunali Post.]

The Cincinnati tobacco "breaks" are gigantic consolidated tobacco company. Five years ago the auction sales in the immense warehouses in the bottoms were attended by, besides growers, several hundred eager bidders-speculators, brokers and buyers for great independent tobacco firms. Competition was fierce. A fine article of white burley tobacco was driven skyward in the auction sales. Men could buy hundreds of hogsheads of tobacco when the article was again on slim offerings and in a single fortnight make a snug profit.

This no longer exists. Speculators have disappeared altogether. Whole families have thus been driven to other play with.

The trust fixes the prices. The trust lets withdrawing its buyers. Tobacco men all of our goods to be strictly pure. are afraid to whisper words of disapproval of the evil lest their business be crushed.

The tobacco trust controls 75 per cent. of the business done on the "breaks." Last year the trust purchased 30,000,000 pounds of white burley tobacco direct from the farmers of the Ohio valley. Of that quantity 20,000,000 pounds would otherwise have passed through the great local clearing houses.

A certain manufacturing firm that made a certain brand of tobacco famous formerly paid 18 and 20c, a pound in this market for the choice white burley tobacco that went into its plug. Sick People Should Have as Much Consideration as Criminals. [Carllsie Mercury.]

Judge Barker of Louisville has decided that a smallpox patient can be taken by force from home and confined in a pest house. If this is true every county should be required to have a suitable pest house, and the next Legislature should pass a law requiring counties to provide it just as it is required to have a court house and jail. Certainly sick people should have as much consideration as a criminal.

The proceeding against Miss Maggie Robinson, a colored school teacher, to revoke her certificate, was dismissed on the prosecution's testimony.

The convention opened with the singing of the doxology, followed by the singing of that grand old hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy." Mr. James Chiids, who was in charge of the devotional exercises then read a psalm, and the convention was led in prayer by State President Tinder of Carlisle.
